The NCSU Libraries announces the twenty-eighth annual North Carolina State University Libraries Faculty Award. The award is given to an NC State faculty member who has contributed consistently and notably to the accomplishment of the Libraries’ mission, vision, and strategic initiatives. The award, established in commemoration of the library’s centennial year in 1989, enables the library to recognize faculty contributions.

Any NC State faculty member, except former recipients and library faculty, is eligible to be nominated for this award. The nominator should use the form on the opposite side of this page and provide a letter describing how the nominee meets the criteria below. Additional letters in support of a nomination are encouraged.

The Friends of the Library will present the award at its Fall event. This award is made possible by funding from the Friends of the Library.

Nomination Criteria:

- Works actively and effectively to support the Libraries
- Promotes the role of the Libraries as an essential component of the university’s mission
- Works in partnership with library faculty and staff in teaching, research, and/or extension activities
- Promotes expanded access to information resources

The Award Includes:

- Honorary life membership in the Friends of the Library
- Name engraved on the NCSU Libraries Faculty Award plaque
- A special recognition certificate

The deadline for nominations is May 27, 2016
