Join Us this Fall
NC State Libraries PRESENTS \ FALL 2018 EVENTS CALENDAR

A/V Geeks at the Hunt Library – Everything You Love is Disgusting
D. H. Hill Library, Teaching and Visualization Lab
Times and dates are subject to change. Please check our website at www.lib.ncsu.edu to confirm.

Library Liberalism Special Collections and Sprints
NC State Libraries, Special Collections
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 4:30 P.M. – 6:30 P.M.
D. H. Hill Library
Library Liberalism explores the NC State Libraries Special Collections Research Center with a lens that is through the eyes of one who has curated and managed the collection for over 30 years. The Library Liberalism Special Collections and Sprints will feature a variety of sprints, featuring much of the collection in a sprint-organized way.

Science and the Movies – Genetic Engineering and Gene Editing
Science in the Movies returns to the Hunt Library with clips and discussion about the gene editing technique CRISPR and the future of genetic modification. The event is presented by the University Libraries, Department of Biological Sciences, and the Department of Genetics.

Coffee & Viz – Modeling the Chemical Space
Fridays and Saturdays, 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.
D. H. Hill Library, Teaching and Visualization Lab
Dr. Rob Dunn will share the story of the tens of thousands of species of microorganisms that exist in your gut, as well as their role in your immune system and overall health. Attendees will create their own virtual microbiome in the workshop.

State of Sound, Stories – Sound Engineers Matthew Barchert (Superbunt) and Kelly O’Riordan (Otherthal)
D. H. Hill Library, D. H. Hill West Wing Auditorium
Saturday, November 25, 7 p.m.
Barchet and O’Riordan are both sound engineers and veterans of the music industry. Together, they will share their experiences with the audience.

CINEMA OUTDOORS 2018
Friday, October 19, 6:30 p.m.
Join the Friends of the Library for an outdoor screening of Restless City featuring local NC State film studies students and postdoctoral scholars. The event is free and open to the public.

Premiere of the University Libraries New Outdoor Screen, Boneyard at Mar-Mac
Premiere on October 19, 6:30 p.m.
The select audience will enjoy a viewing of a new work by a student filmmaker from NC State.

FALL 2018 EVENTS CALENDAR

Membership Benefits
By joining the more than 1,200 members of the NC State Libraries, you receive:
• Invitations to our signature Fall Reading, Spring Reading, and Summer Reading events.
• Frequent mailings highlighting latest news and events.
• Discounts at UNC Press and Quail Ridge Books.
• A reduced subscription rate to Our State magazine.
• NC State borrowing privileges with the paradox of a bookless local lovers.
• Your Support Matters
Through the generosity of our friends, we are able to provide materials and opportunities to our students, postdoctoral scholars, and faculty. By giving, you help ensure that the Libraries remains a cutting-edge digital environment for the research, learning, teaching, and initiatives that exist at NC State. Some programs and initiatives only come to life because of the generosity of our friends. We appreciate the support of our annual donors.

Library Programs and Services
The Libraries support students, faculty, and staff of NC State University through the creation, management, and delivery of the library’s collections, services, programs, and initiatives; the creation, provision, and support of digital content; and the support of research and teaching. The Libraries are dedicated to the mission of the University and the NC State University Libraries, and the Libraries are proud to be a member of the Association of Research Libraries (ARL). The Libraries serve as the primary source of information for the campus community.

Join the Friends of the Library
To join or renew your Friends of the Library membership, visit www.lib.ncsu.edu/joinFOL or call us at 919-515-2841.
A/V Geeks at the Hunt Library: Graphic Novels in the Land of Plenty
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Duke Energy Hall
To commemorate NC State's Comics and Graphic Novels Collection, A/V Geeks team up with Durham's Printed Record to launch a yearlong series of events exploring video games as a way to encourage experiential learning.

Tuesdays on Tap
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 7:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Shippe Library Cafe
Free for Friends of the Library members or tickets available for non-members.

Author Event – Dave Pilkey
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 11:30 A.M.
Hunt Library, Duke Energy Hall
Dave Pilkey discusses his latest graphic novel, Dog Man: Brawl of the Wild, with illustrator Jim Aparo and whether his characters are based on his children. Novels and graphic novels will be available for purchase.

High-Performance Computing in the Humanities
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 5:00 P.M.
D. H. Hill Library, Multimedia Seminar Center
As an early celebration of nineteenth-century literature, this event will discuss the effects of the invention of the typewriter on the Victorian novel.

Global Film Series – Out of Norway
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Duke Energy Hall
The incredible migration story of Emanuel, an African American man who was deported to Norway during World War II will be featured.

State of Sound: Stories – Kaechon of Experimental Music Duncan Pent Co.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 11:30 A.M.
Hunt Library, Library Square
The Kaechon of Experimental Music Duncan Pent Company is one of many examples of the diversity of sound and musical cultures around the world.

Imaging Emanuel
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Auditorium
This screening will feature the NCSU Libraries Faculty Award and Outstanding Thesis Award recipients.

September Exhibit Tour – An Artful Eye: The Architectural Photography of Gonzalo Schindel
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 11:30 A.M.
D. H. Hill Library Gallery
This non-profit gallery is located at Alben C. Carson, Kansas City, Missouri in the African American Cultural Center on the campus of the University of Kansas. It is considered one of the most important African American cultural centers in the United States.

Coffee & Viz – Making Tornadoes
FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 11:30 A.M.
D. H. Hill Library, Library Square
Join the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration for a lunch-and-learn session on tornadoes, the science behind them, and how they are studied.

Global Film Series – Spy vs. Spy
THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Duke Energy Hall
This film, a Cold War spy spoof, follows the adventures of two spies from opposing sides in their attempts to uncover the location of a gold vault.

High-Performance Computing in the Humanities
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 4:30 P.M.
D. H. Hill Library, Multimedia Seminar Center
The authors will discuss the effects of the invention of the typewriter on the Victorian novel.

Student Short Film Showcase
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Auditorium
This showcase features student filmmakers from NC State who will screen their short films and answer questions from the audience.

Coffee & Viz – Comparative Visualization Using Ensemble Surface Slicing
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, T & V Laboratory
Researchers from the National Humanities Center will discuss their work on text mining in large digital libraries and visual analytics in large digital humanities projects.

Coffee & Viz – Imagining Emanuel + Out of Norway
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Auditorium
This screening will feature the NCSU Libraries Faculty Award and Outstanding Thesis Award recipients.

State of Sound: Stories – Kaechon of Experimental Music Duncan Pent Co.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 11:30 A.M.
Hunt Library, Library Square
The Kaechon of Experimental Music Duncan Pent Company is one of many examples of the diversity of sound and musical cultures around the world.

Imaging Emanuel
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Auditorium
This screening will feature the NCSU Libraries Faculty Award and Outstanding Thesis Award recipients.

September Exhibit Tour – An Artful Eye: The Architectural Photography of Gonzalo Schindel
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 11:30 A.M.
D. H. Hill Library Gallery
This non-profit gallery is located at Alben C. Carson, Kansas City, Missouri in the African American Cultural Center on the campus of the University of Kansas. It is considered one of the most important African American cultural centers in the United States.

Coffee & Viz – Making Tornadoes
FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 11:30 A.M.
D. H. Hill Library, Library Square
Join the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration for a lunch-and-learn session on tornadoes, the science behind them, and how they are studied.

Global Film Series – Spy vs. Spy
THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Duke Energy Hall
This film, a Cold War spy spoof, follows the adventures of two spies from opposing sides in their attempts to uncover the location of a gold vault.

High-Performance Computing in the Humanities
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 4:30 P.M.
D. H. Hill Library, Multimedia Seminar Center
The authors will discuss the effects of the invention of the typewriter on the Victorian novel.

Student Short Film Showcase
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, Auditorium
This showcase features student filmmakers from NC State who will screen their short films and answer questions from the audience.

Coffee & Viz – Comparative Visualization Using Ensemble Surface Slicing
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 6:00 P.M.
Hunt Library, T & V Laboratory
Researchers from the National Humanities Center will discuss their work on text mining in large digital libraries and visual analytics in large digital humanities projects.