The NC State University Libraries

Our Vision: The Libraries: NC State’s competitive advantage. We make NC State better. The NC State University Libraries is a catalyst for knowledge and discovery for North Carolina State University and its partners. We define the leading edge of what a research library can be to support the university’s mission and address global challenges.

OUR SPACES—THE MOST USED RESOURCE ON CAMPUS

Two main libraries—the D. H. Hill Jr. Library and the James B. Hunt Jr. Library—as well as the Harrye B. Lyons Design Library, the Natural Resources Library, and the William Rand Kenan Jr. Library of Veterinary Medicine, with more than 2.5 million total user visits per year.

Key spaces include:

- Learning Commons, Faculty Research Commons, Graduate Student Commons
- Large-scale, immersive visualization spaces
- Digital media creation facilities
- Dataspace with advanced computing, software, training, and consultation (Hunt)
- A Game Lab for the scholarly study and enjoyment of games and for interactive workshops and demonstrations
- iPearl Immersion Theater for panoramic display of faculty and student work (Hunt)
- Makerspaces offering 3D printing and scanning and other specialized tools
- Special Collections Reading Room and Exhibit Gallery (Hill)

OUR COLLECTION—AN ENGINE FOR RESEARCH AND LEARNING

Strengths in agriculture, architecture, biological sciences, design, engineering, entomology, forest resources, mathematics, physical sciences, statistics, textiles, and veterinary medicine.

- More than 5.3 million volumes, and approximately 128,000 print and electronic serial subscriptions (127,000 of them electronic)
- 635 bibliographic databases and a growing array of electronic full-text and image collections
- Over 16.5 million total uses of the collection in 2017/18
